Itinerary:

- 05h30: Our friendly Vespa driver guide will greet you at your hotel. After a short briefing, hop on your stylish ride and glide through Hanoi's empty streets as the first light begins to glow. The city is still sleepy — the perfect time to see its softer, more intimate side.
- 06:00: Arrive at Ba Dinh Square in time for Vietnam's daily flag-raising ceremony, performed by uniformed guards to the national anthem. This moment is deeply moving — a proud ritual that reflects the spirit and respect of the Vietnamese people for their country's history and independence.

- Ride across the legendary Long Bien Bridge, a masterpiece of colonial architecture designed by Eiffel. As you cruise along the narrow lanes beside bicycles and street vendors, take in sweeping sunrise views over the Red River and vegetable farms scattered across the riverbanks. It's a breathtaking sight few travelers experience.
- Stop at Hoan Kiem Lake, Hanoi's cultural heart, where hundreds of locals gather to greet the day. From elders flowing through slow, graceful morning stretches, to couples dancing in rhythm and locals breaking a sweat with upbeat aerobics., this is Hanoi's morning spirit on full display. Join in if you'd like — the locals are always welcoming!

- 07:30: Head to a time-honored local eatery known only to Hanoi residents to enjoy freshly made Bánh Cuốn — delicate steamed rice rolls filled with minced pork, mushrooms, and shallots, served with fish sauce and herbs. Watch how the thin sheets are made on a steaming cloth — it's a culinary craft worth seeing up close.
- No Hanoi morning is complete without trying the city's famous Egg Coffee — a rich, creamy blend of egg yolk, sugar, condensed milk, and robust Vietnamese coffee. Served at a nostalgic café tucked into a quiet alley, it's the kind of hidden gem you'd never find without a local guide.

- 09:00: Now that the city is awake, it's time to explore its lesser-known corners. Your Vespa weaves through narrow alleyways, wet markets, and hidden residential neighborhoods, giving you an insider's look at daily life. You'll see Hanoi beyond the tourist trails — authentic, raw, and full of character.

- Escape the buzz and head to a quiet part of town where kumquat trees, bonsai gardens, and family-run nurseries flourish. These green oases are where Hanoi's famous Tet trees are grown and sold, and where families pass down gardening traditions through generations. It's a peaceful, earthy contrast to the city's vibrant core.
- Wrap up your experience with a light snack or fresh local juice at a hidden café, where you can relax and chat with your guide about Hanoi's unique rhythm of life.
- 11:30: Hop back on your Vespa and ride through Hanoi one last time as the city reaches full energy. Drop-off at your hotel, and say goodbye to your guide.

Thank you for joining us, and have a nice trip!

Money matters:

When it comes to spending money on the trip, every traveler is a little different. You know your spending habits better than we do, so please budget an appropriate amount for optional meals, drinks, shopping, optional activities, and laundry. Make sure you have read the itinerary and inclusions thoroughly so you know what is included in the trip price and what you may need to pay for while traveling.

- Vietnamese Dong (VND) is the currency of Vietnam.
- ATMs: Check if your card is compatible with local ATMs before traveling to Vietnam. Using an ATM card will help ensure safety during your travel. However, you should also bring a small amount of cash for services, shopping, meals, etc., when needed.
- Scam alert: Be careful of street vendors and local markets using similar colors of 500,000 VND and 20,000 VND bills to scam visitors.
- Counterfeit money: There are some counterfeit banknotes in circulation in Vietnam, particularly for the 500,000 VND, the biggest Vietnam currency note, so you should only exchange money at reputable places or consult your tour guide for advice.
- Keep small bills on hand: Many vendors and small businesses may not have change for larger denominations, so it's helpful to keep smaller bills on hand.
- Notify your bank: If you plan to use your credit or debit card in Vietnam, notify your bank beforehand to avoid any issues with your account being flagged for suspicious activity.
- USD to VND current exchange rate: 1 USD ~ 25,000 - 26,000 VND (change cash in jewelry shops, the exchange rates are often better than in a bank or at the airport).
- QR code payment: widely accepted in many urban areas in Vietnam.
- Are credit cards accepted widely in Vietnam?
USD and Major credit cards are widely accepted at large shops, hotels and restaurants in Vietnam. However, smaller vendors, family-run eateries, markets, and rural areas may only accept cash. Carry enough cash for as a backup, especially outside cities.

Dining: Please inform your operator or guide in advance if you have any dietary restrictions or food allergies.

Phone and internet access:

- With the modern world you may want to bring along tablets or smartphones for the children to document their adventure - there are a wide variety of apps out there which we suggest downloading before you depart. There will be opportunities to charge (just make sure you bring the correct adapter) and there will be wi-fi available in most of the hotels/restaurants on the tour, although it will probably not be at the speeds you are used to at home and it won't be available everywhere.
- E-sim can be a good option for you (less than 10 USD/sim card)

Is tipping compulsory in Vietnam?

Tipping is not mandatory or a common custom in Vietnam. However, it is greatly appreciated by service staff—such as waiters, hotel porters, drivers, and tour guides—especially when they provide exceptional service. Even a small tip can make a big difference and is considered a gesture of kindness and respect.
